Bio

Chloe Mullen-Wilson joined the firm in 2022 as an Associate Attorney in the Wills, Trusts and Estates Department and focuses her practice on Orphans' Court litigation, estate and trust administration, guardianships, special needs trusts, real estate and corporate matters. In addition, Chloe supports the Consumer Protection Department, utilizing her advocacy skills to assist individuals in class action matters to combat deceptive and unjust business practices.

Before joining Timoney Knox, Chloe worked for a boutique trusts and estates firm, where she gained experience working on matters pertaining to guardianships, special needs trusts, estate and trust planning and administration, and Orphans' Court litigation.

Chloe graduated from Seton Hall University, summa cum laude, where she majored in Spanish and History while minoring in Philosophy and Women's Studies, and subsequently graduated from Temple University Beasley School of Law, cum laude. During law school, she clerked for the Honorable Petrese B. Tucker of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and for the Honorable Anne E. Lazarus of the Pennsylvania Superior Court.

Chloe currently serves as the Chair of the Diversity Committee and an Executive Committee Member of the Probate and Trust Law Section of the Philadelphia Bar Association. In addition to being a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, she is also a member of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of

Trust Law Section

- Philadelphia Bar Association, Probate and Trust Law Section: Executive Committee Member
  - Philadelphia Bar Association, Probate and Trust Law Section: Diversity Committee Chair
  - Montgomery Bar Association, Probate and Tax Committee

the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the Probate and Tax Section of the Montgomery Bar Association and the Philadelphia Estate Planning Counsel.
